Won't fight firing by Ron

San Diego (AP)—A United States attorney in California, fired by President Reagan after he embarrassed the administration by identifying a key

Central Intelligence Agency source in Mexico, says he won't fight the dismissal.

William H. Kennedy, a Reagan appointee, was fired Monday. Kennedy, 50, confirmed 11 days ago that CIA and Justice Department officials blocked an indictment of CIA source Miguel Nassar Haro, a former chief of Mexico's federal security agency. Nassar has been implicated in a ring that stole $8.4 million in cars in Southern California and smuggled them into Mexico, sources said.
